

Luxembourg, May 16th 2017

Casa4Funds hires Private Equity and Real Estate specialist Richard Maisse as Head of Private Equity and Real Estate and member of the Executive Committee.

Casa4Funds SA ("Casa4Funds"), Independent Management Company and AIFM in Luxembourg, has appointed Private Equity and Real Estate ("PE/RE") specialist Richard Maisse to head up its PE/RE division. Richard will be part of Casa4Funds' Executive Committee.

This appointment is part of Casa4Funds long term strategy to develop its alternative funds service offer and reinforce its governance in an ever more demanding environment of expertise, substance and transparency.

Richard has a long term experience of the fund industry, especially Private Equity and Real Estate funds spanning 18 years in audit firms and central administration. Richard has previously worked at Mazars in Paris and Luxembourg on Alternative and UCITS funds before leading the Private Equity and Real Estate division of EFA, a main central administration in Luxembourg, with more than € 17 billion under administration in PE/RE and 35 people in his department.

Richard commented: "I'm really delighted to join a Management Company such as Casa4Funds and very excited to take up the challenge involving the development of the alternative funds service offer. The Private Equity and Real Estate is a fascinating business teeming with creative strategies, various structuring and a multiplicity of projects dealing with a broad variety of underlying assets. This is a very technical business for which I will bring my experience as former auditor and central administration department manager as well as my expertise to Casa4Funds to develop and grow this business."

"Casa4Funds has a long and successful track record in fund governance, serving an international client base for more than 12 years. We are pleased to get the chance to strengthen and grow our Alternative Funds service offer. Richard has the perfect skills to understand our clients' challenges and the AIFMD environment, he is a great addition to our company" stated Arnaud Bouteiller, General Manager at Casa4Funds.

For more information, please contact:

Richard.Maisse@Casa4Funds.com

Arnaud.Bouteiller@Casa4Funds.com

